AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Sell Arabic bread, samoon and croissants over the counter in seconds, weigh out kunafa, basbousa and baklava by the box, cut cakes by the slice or sell them whole, and take celebration cake orders with the flavour and the writing. Orders go to the oven, the decorating table and the coffee bar, and the café corner has its own tables.

Fast counter sales

Breads, croissants, fatayer and manakish are one tap each, with the best sellers at the top and warmed or as it is on pastries.

Arabic sweets by the box

Kunafa, basbousa, luqaimat and baklava in 250 g, 500 g and 1 kg boxes, each priced on its own.

Cakes by the slice or whole

Cheesecake, date cake and chocolate cake sold by the slice at the counter or as a whole cake to take home.

Celebration cake orders

Birthday and occasion cakes with the flavour and the writing on the cake, sent to the decorating table.

Daily bake plan

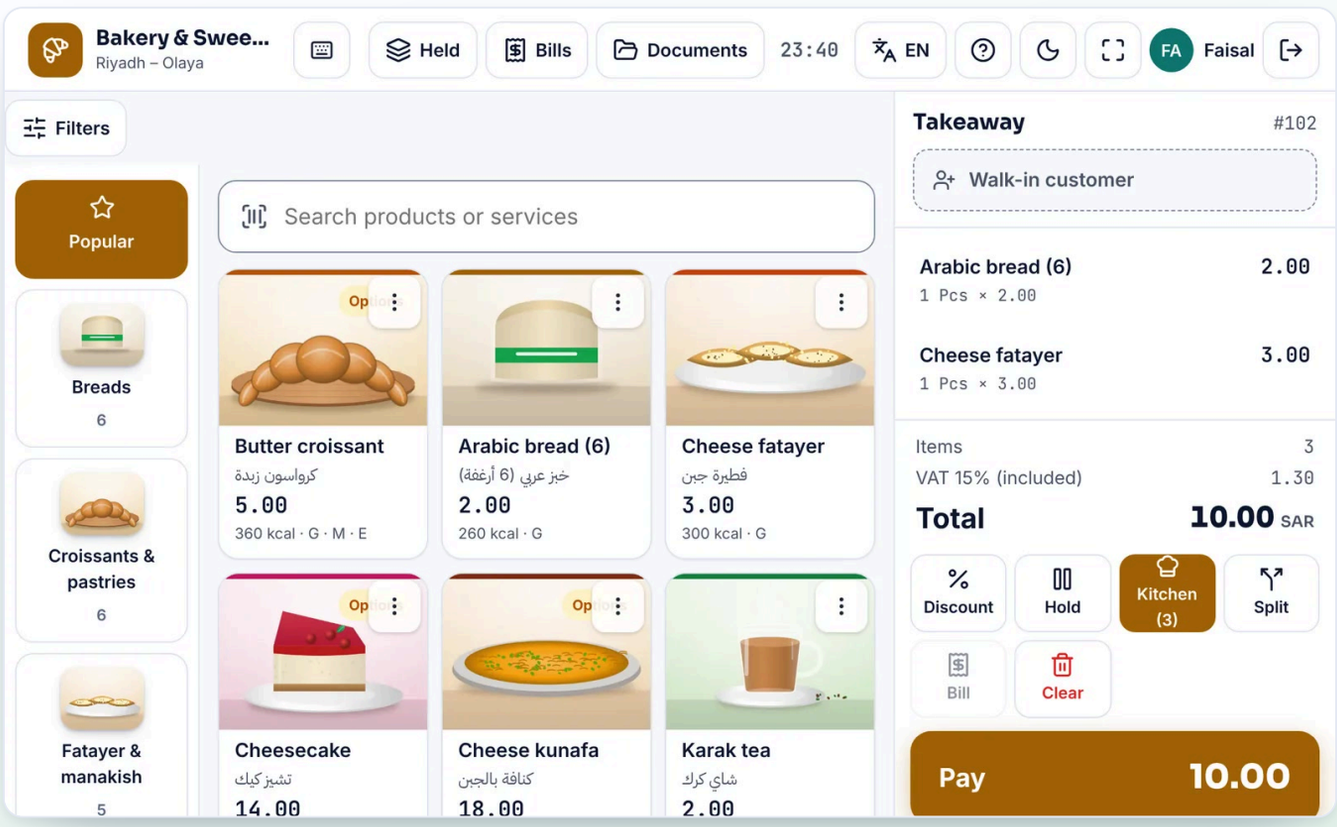

With the Kitchen production add-on, plan the day's bread dough, laminated croissant dough, fillings and syrup against a par for each weekday, record what each batch made, and throw away what is left at closing into the waste log.

Tickets for the oven, cakes and coffee

Fresh fatayer and kunafa go to the oven, cakes to decorating and drinks to the coffee bar; goods already on the shelf are handed over at the counter.

Ideal for

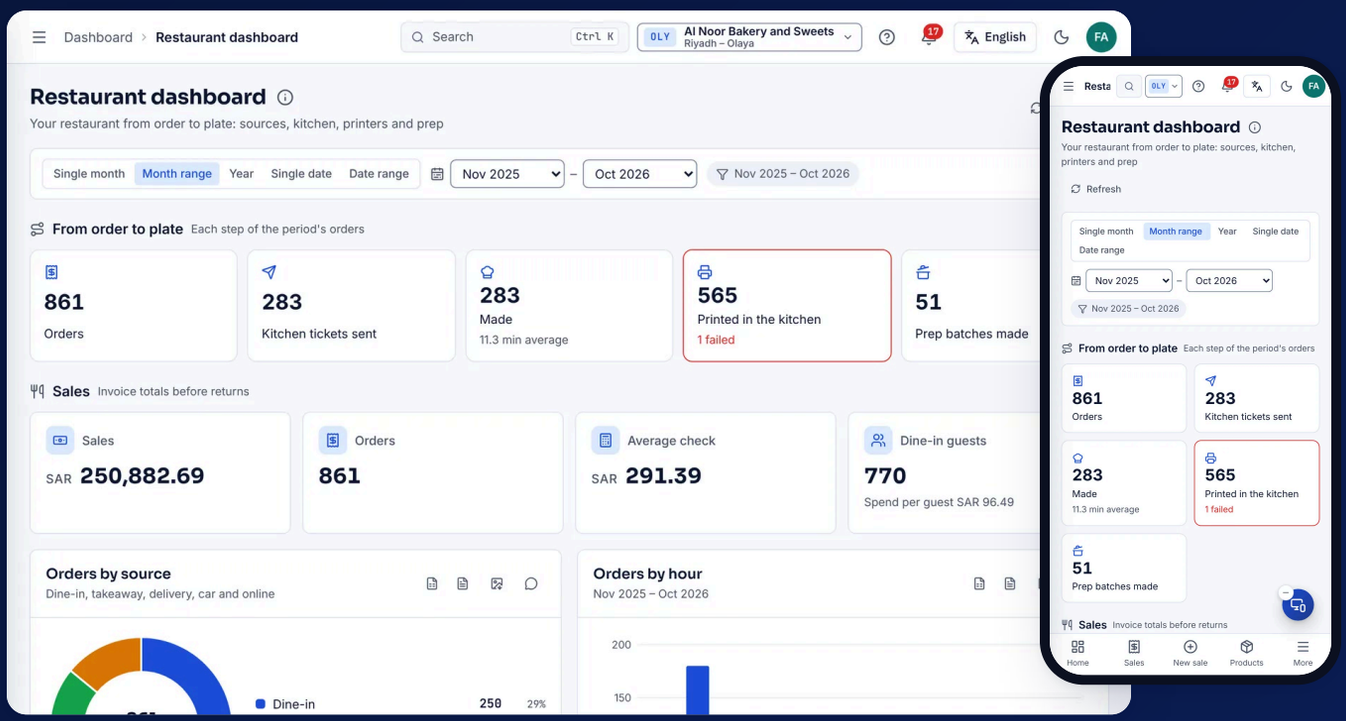

Neighbourhood bakeries · Arabic sweet shops · Patisseries and cake shops · Bakery cafés

Questions owners ask

Can I sell sweets by weight?
Yes. Arabic sweets come in 250 g, 500 g and 1 kg boxes, and you can change the sizes and prices in Products.

How do I plan what to bake each morning?
The Kitchen production add-on lists each prep item with its par for the day and what is already on hand, so the bakers know how much dough to make. Batches left past their shelf life show on the Expired tab, ready to be thrown away into the waste log.
