AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Sell ful, tamees and mutabbaq next to puttu, porotta and beef fry, run shawarma and broast in the evening, and pour karak and Sulaimani all day. Each order goes to its own station, and car service orders are taken to the car.

Breakfast to dinner board

The board shows what is served now: ful and puttu from fajr, biryani and kabsa at lunch, tea snacks at asr and shawarma at night.

Kerala and Arabic on one menu

Porotta, beef fry, Kerala chicken curry and fish fry sit next to falafel, kibda, fatayer and mutabbaq, with English, Arabic and Malayalam names.

Shawarma and broast your way

Extra garlic, spicy, no pickles or saj bread on shawarma; quarter, half or a full broasted chicken.

Car service

Take orders at the car window as their own seats, send them to the kitchen and collect at the car.

Tickets for every station

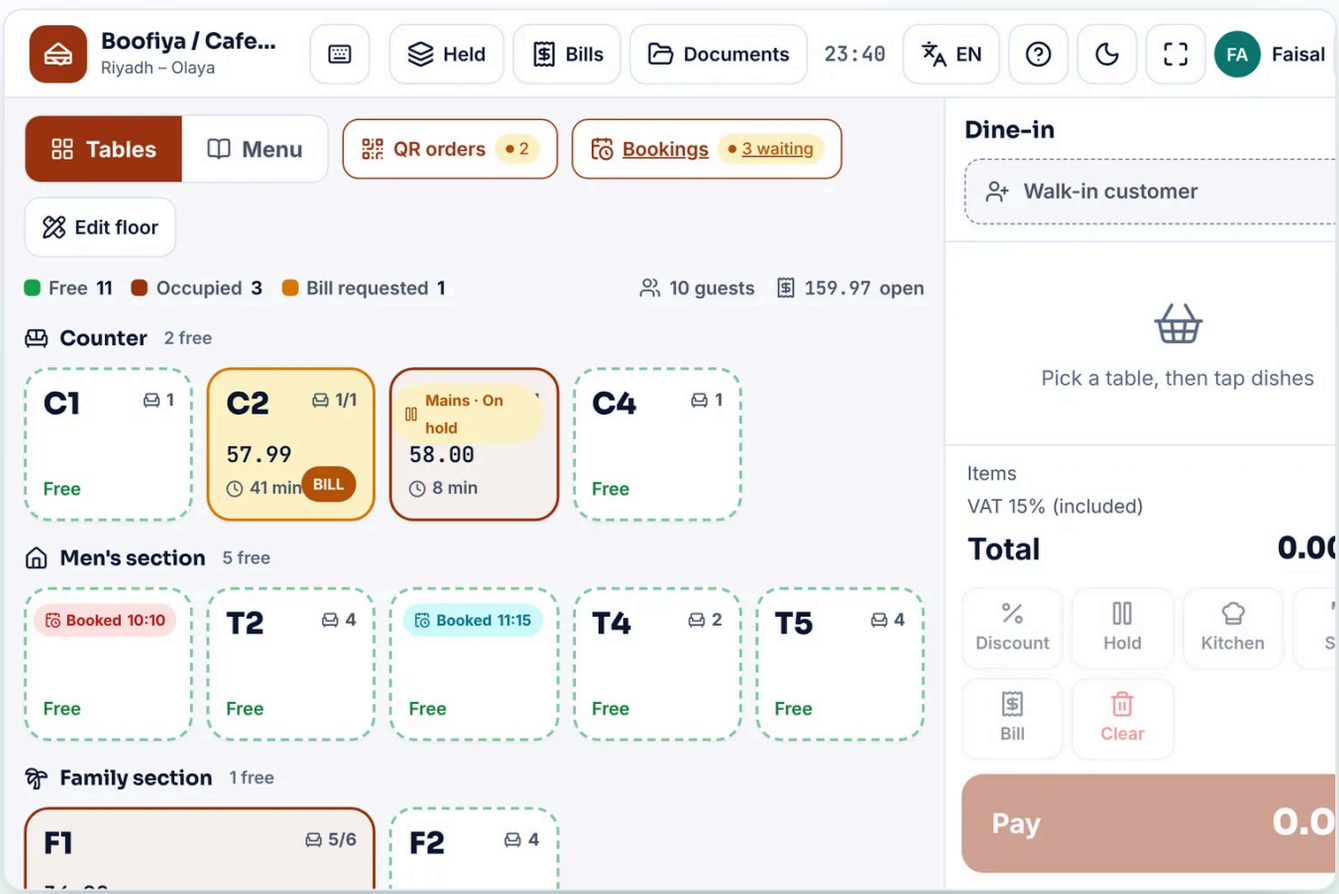

Orders split into the kitchen, the shawarma and broast grill, the porotta and mutabbaq tawa, and the tea and juice counter.

ZATCA invoices on every sale

Every bill is a simplified tax invoice with QR, VAT included in the menu prices, cash, mada or STC Pay.

Ideal for

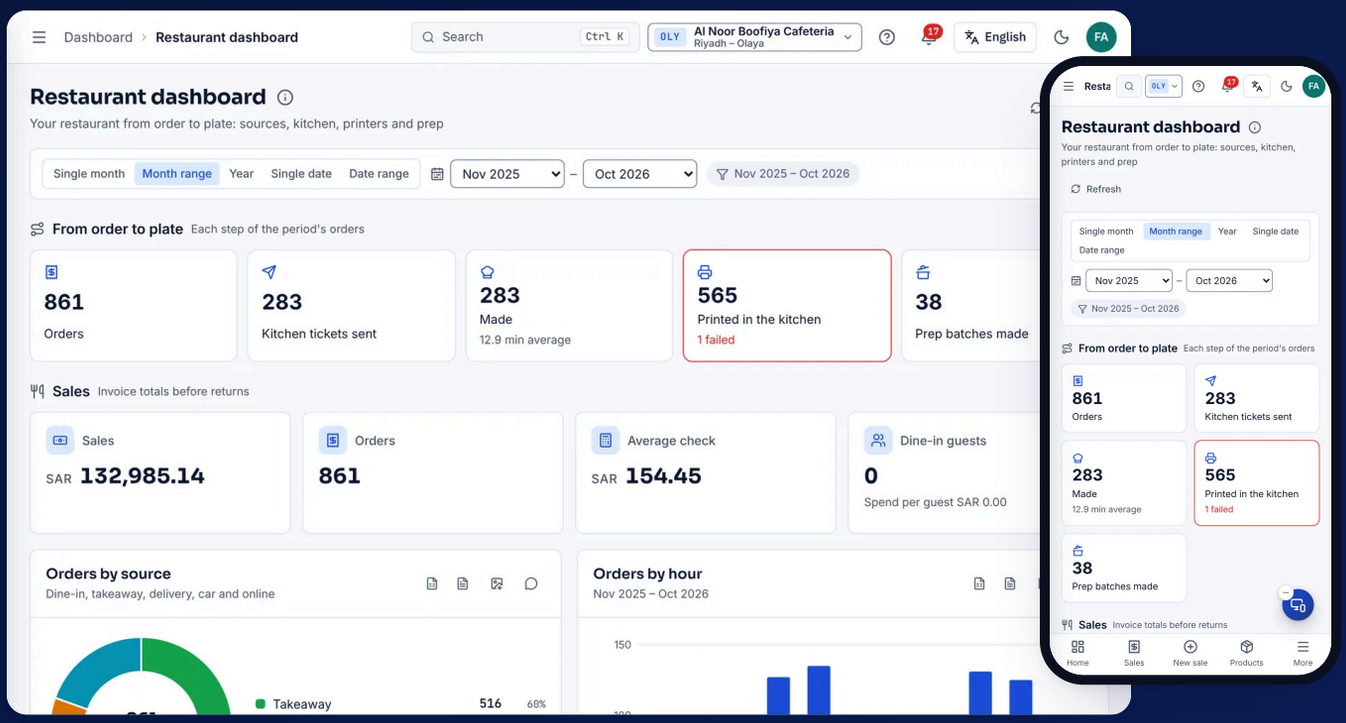

Neighbourhood boofiyas · Kerala-run cafeterias · Shawarma and broast counters · Tea and karak points

Questions owners ask

Can one menu hold Kerala and Arabic dishes?
Yes. Breakfast, shawarma, sandwiches, porotta and curries, rice, tea snacks and drinks are tabs of one menu, each dish with its own options.

How are car service orders handled?
Car service has its own seats on the floor plan. The order goes to the kitchen like any table and is paid at the car.
