AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Rent a sedan for three days in a few taps: the renter, driving licence, plate and dates print on the tax invoice, insurance and a child seat go on the same bill, and the rental moves from booked to on rent, returned and closed on the Rentals board, with extra kilometres, fuel and late return charged when the car comes back.

Daily, weekly and monthly rates

Economy, sedan, SUV and luxury cars by the day, week or month; the quantity is the number of days, weeks or months.

Renter and licence on the invoice

Every rental asks for the renter, driving licence, vehicle plate, start and return dates and prints them on the line.

Rentals board

Each paid rental moves from booked to on rent, returned and closed, with its return date shown, so nothing is left open.

Insurance and extras

Full insurance, child seats, GPS, an additional driver and delivery to the customer, added per day or once.

Charges after return

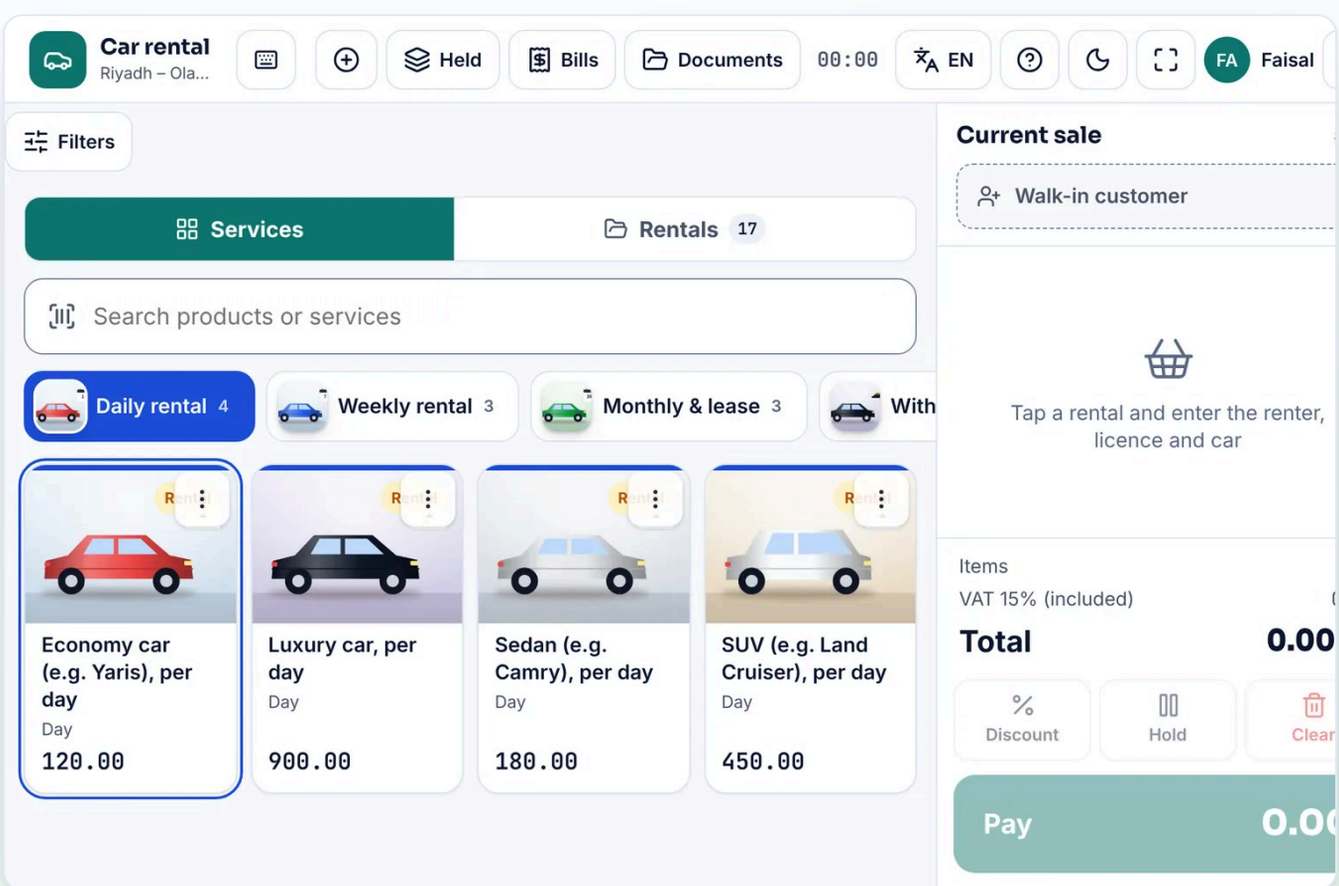

Extra kilometres, fuel, late return, cleaning and damage are billed against the plate when the car comes back.

Licences, registrations and insurance

Keep each car's registration and insurance and each customer's licence and contract in Documents, with expiry reminders.

Ideal for

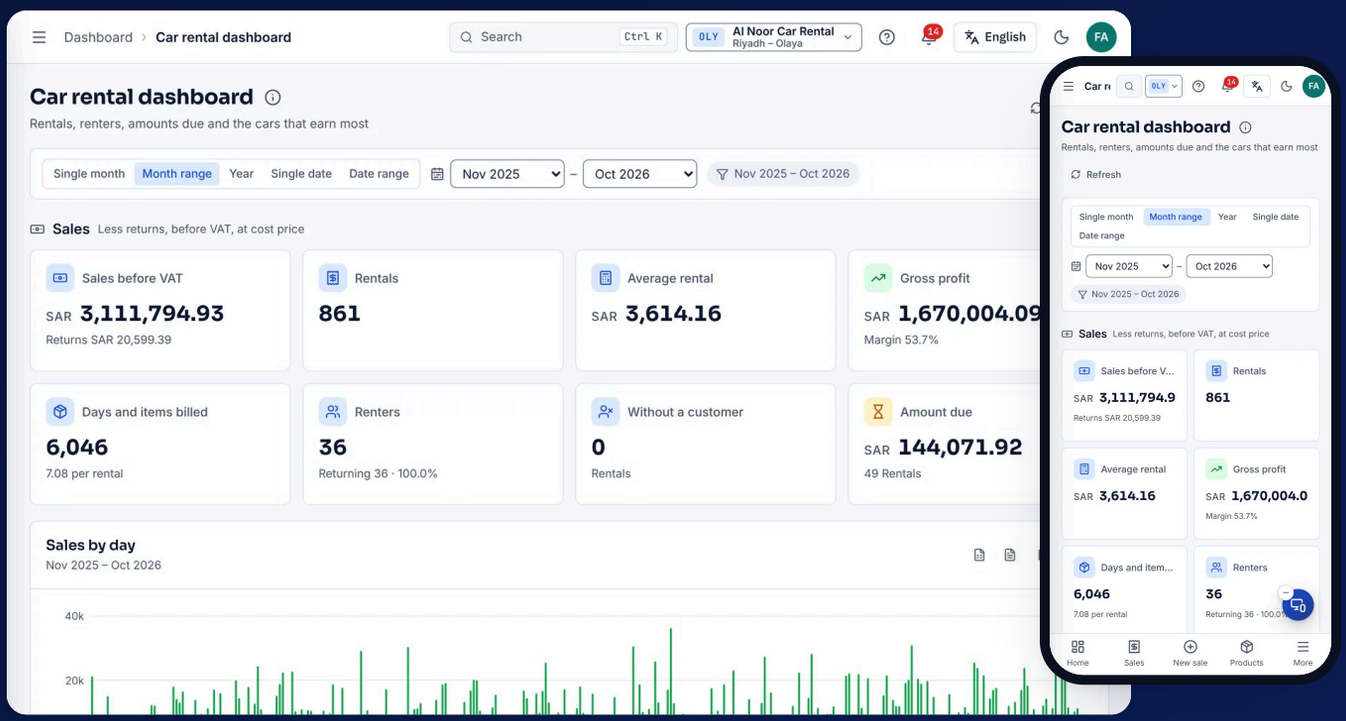

- Rent-a-car offices
- Monthly and corporate leasing
- Chauffeur and limousine services
- Airport rental desks

Questions owners ask

Can I bill a monthly rental to a company on account?
Yes. Choose the company as customer and pay on account; the invoice goes to its statement and ageing.

How are extra kilometres and fuel charged?
From the Charges after return tab: type the amount, enter the plate and the charge prints on its own invoice line.
