AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Sell helmets, gloves, safety shoes, masks, harnesses, extinguishers and first aid to contractors on their contract prices and credit terms, or to a walk-in buyer at the shelf price. Filter by EN standard, size and material, pick the size of a shoe or a glove, record the lot and expiry of masks and first aid or the serial number of a harness, flag the CE certificate to attach, and keep each product's certificate and its expiry so a tender or an audit gets it at once.

EN standard, size and material

Find PPE by its standard and protection level (EN 397, EN 388, S3, FFP3), its size and material, in ten sections from head to gas detection.

Trade accounts and walk-ins

Contractors, industrial and government accounts buy at contract prices on 30 to 60-day terms; a walk-in buyer pays the shelf price.

Sizes of shoes, gloves and workwear

Pick the EU size of a safety shoe, the size of a glove or a coverall at the counter, with the pairs left of each.

Lots, expiry and serial numbers

Record the lot and expiry of masks, filters and first aid kits and the serial number of harnesses, lifelines, extinguishers and gas detectors on each line, for recalls and inspections.

CE certificates and their expiry

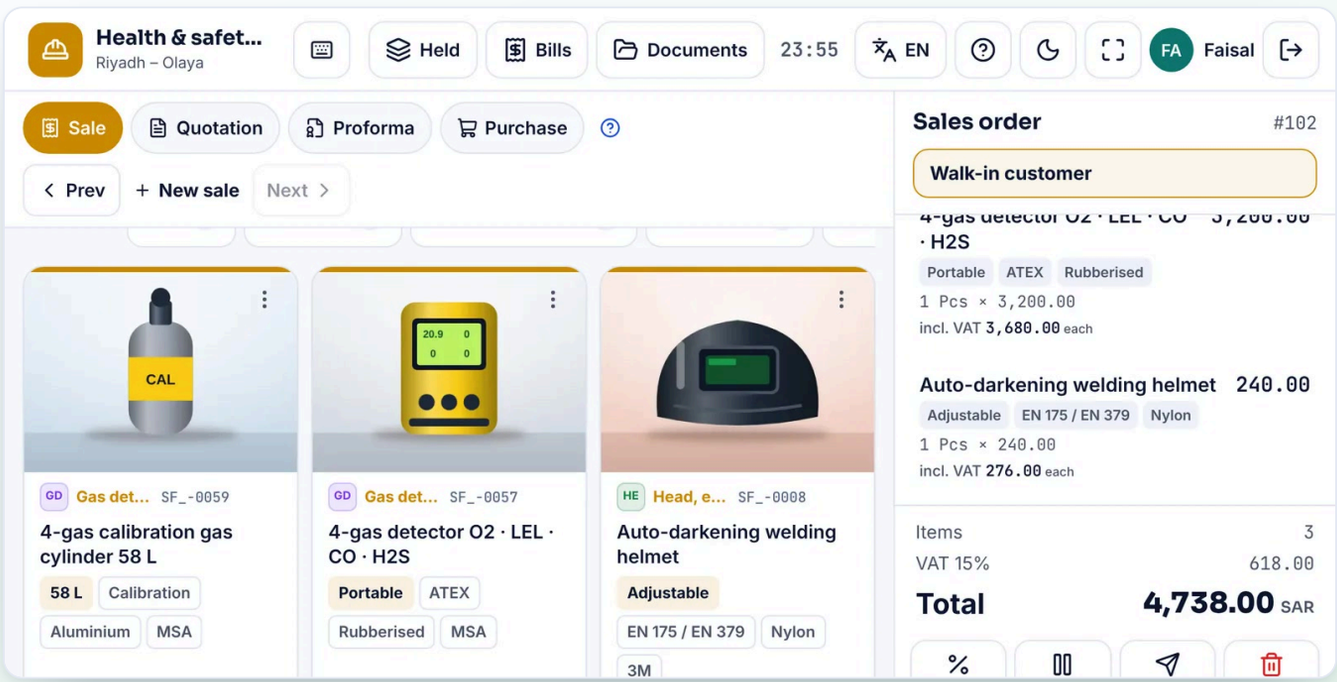

Keep each product's EU type-examination certificate or declaration of conformity with its notified body and expiry, and see what expires soon and what has none.

Inspections, refills and fit tests

Extinguisher refills, harness inspections, gas detector calibration, respirator fit tests and logo printing as services on the same bill.

Ideal for

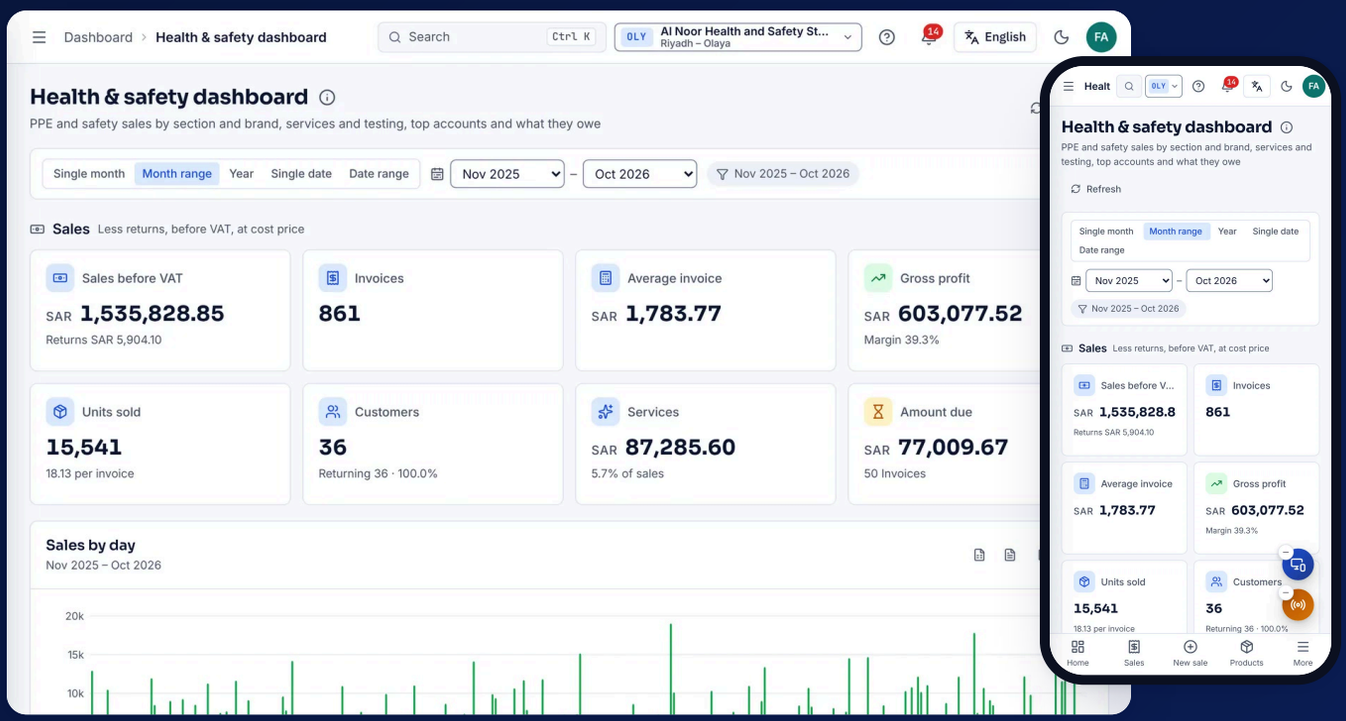

PPE and safety equipment shops · Fire safety and extinguisher dealers · Site and contractor supply counters · First aid and workwear suppliers

Questions owners ask

Can I sell to contractors on credit and to walk-in buyers?
Yes. Pick the customer's account for its contract price and credit terms, or tap Walk-in customer to sell at the shelf price and take payment at once.

Can I keep the CE certificate of each product?
Yes. With the PPE certificates add-on each product keeps its certificate, standard, notified body and expiry, and the list shows what has expired, what expires soon and the goods with none.
