AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Type the brand or the active ingredient and every medicine with it comes up with its strength and form. Sell one strip or the whole box from the same stock, see at a glance which items need a prescription, and keep batches and expiry dates so the near-expiry stock is sold or returned first. Purchases from your medical warehouses update stock and what you owe them.

Brand or generic name

Search by brand, active ingredient, barcode or code; each medicine shows its strength and dosage form.

A strip or the whole box

Keep stock by the strip and sell one strip or a full box at the counter; the box price follows the strip price.

Prescription items marked

Prescription-only and controlled medicines carry an Rx mark on the POS, so the pharmacist checks before selling.

Batches and expiry dates

Record the batch and expiry of each delivery and see what is expired or expiring soon, with its value.

Purchases and reorder

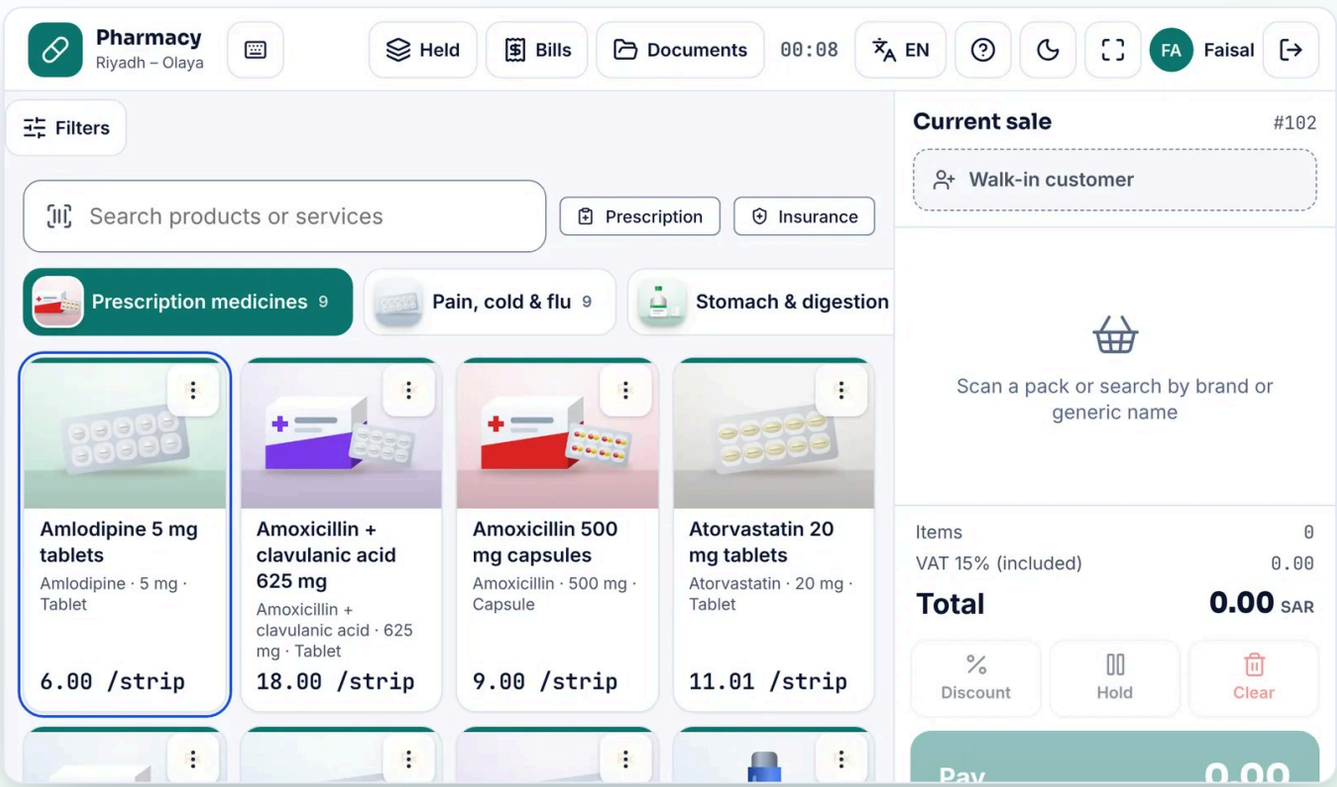

Purchases from medical warehouses raise stock and the supplier's balance; low stock is listed for the next order.

Net profit every day

Sales less purchases and expenses for any day, month or year, by branch, in your own currency.

Ideal for

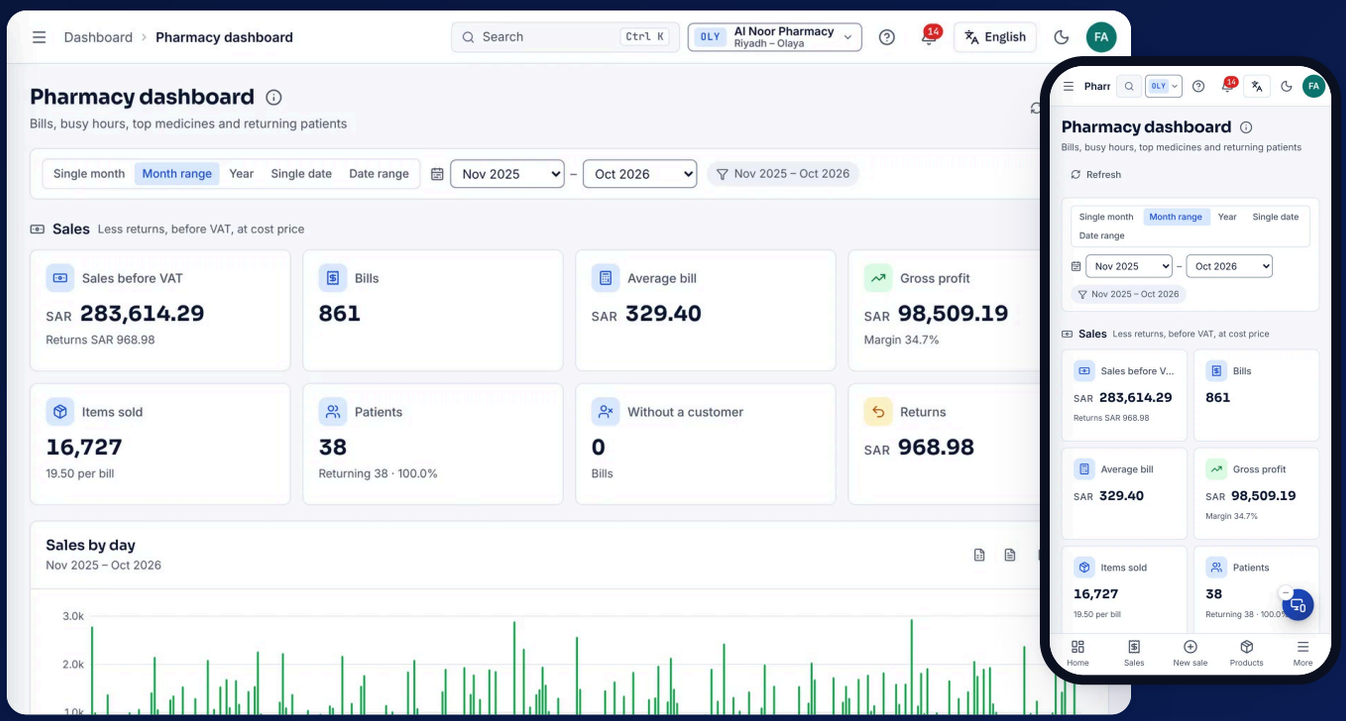

- Community pharmacies
- Pharmacy chains with several branches
- Pharmacies inside clinics and medical centres
- Medical and baby care stores

Questions owners ask

Can I sell one strip from a box?
Yes. Set how many strips a box holds on the medicine and keep its stock by the strip; the POS asks for one strip or the whole box.

Can I find a medicine by its active ingredient?
Yes. Each medicine keeps its generic name, and searching for it lists every brand that contains it.
