AT THE COUNTER

Made for the way you sell

Sell a room or suite by the night with the guest, room number, check-in, check-out and booking channel on the tax invoice, then follow the stay from booked to in house to checked out. The restaurant, room service, minibar, laundry, spa and limousine charge to the guest's room, and the hotel dashboard shows tonight's occupancy, ADR and RevPAR with today's arrivals and departures.

Room rack with occupancy, ADR and RevPAR

Every room night by night for two weeks or a month: the guest in each room, arrivals, departures, free rooms and any room sold twice, with the figures a hotel lives by.

Guest folios and charges to the room

Room service, the restaurant, minibar, laundry and spa charge to the room and gather on the guest's folio with the stay, paid and owed, room by room.

Housekeeping board

Dirty, clean, inspected or out of order for every room, with the attendant and the time, and today's departures and arrivals first.

Night audit

Close each day once with its rooms sold, occupancy, ADR, RevPAR, room and outlet revenue, arrivals, departures and no-shows, kept as a record that cannot change.

Booking.com, Expedia and Agoda commission

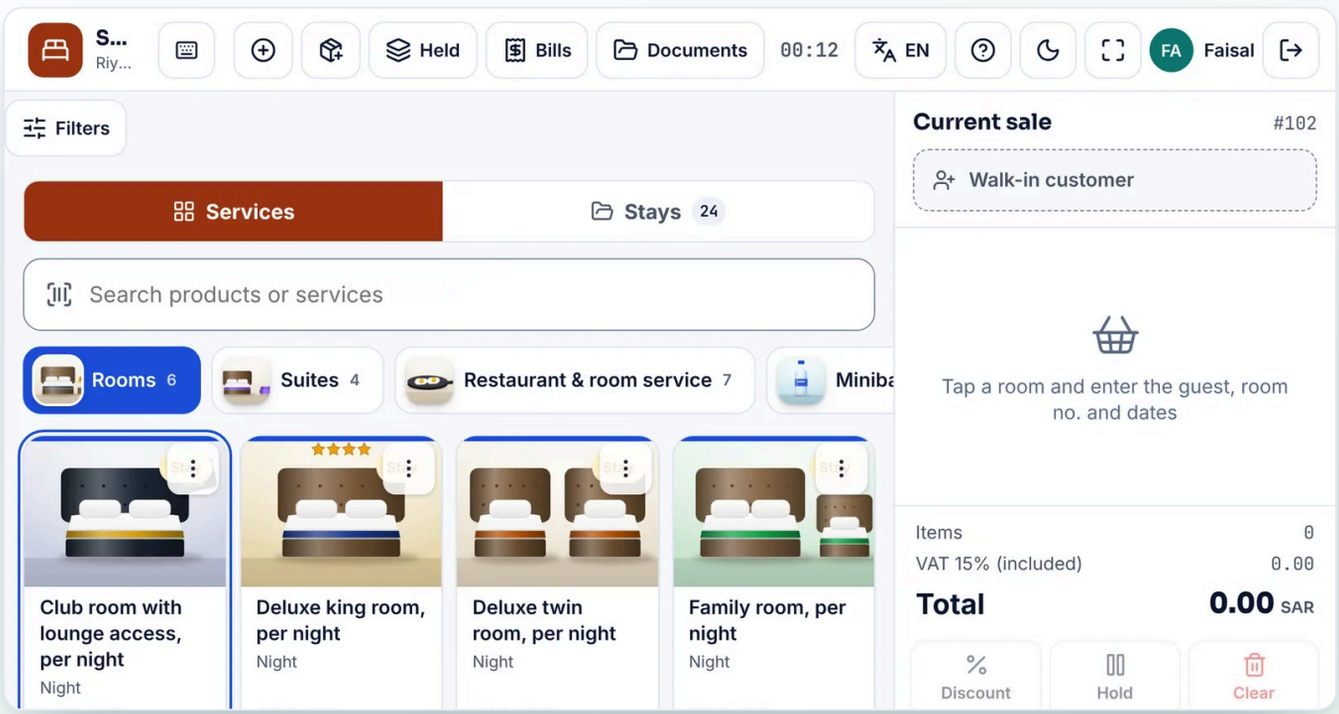

Pick the channel on each stay and see each channel's nights, revenue, average rate and the commission it costs at your own rates.

Banquets and meeting rooms

Book weddings, conferences and meetings by hall, date and time with guests, menu, set-up and deposit; a hall is never booked twice at once.

Ideal for

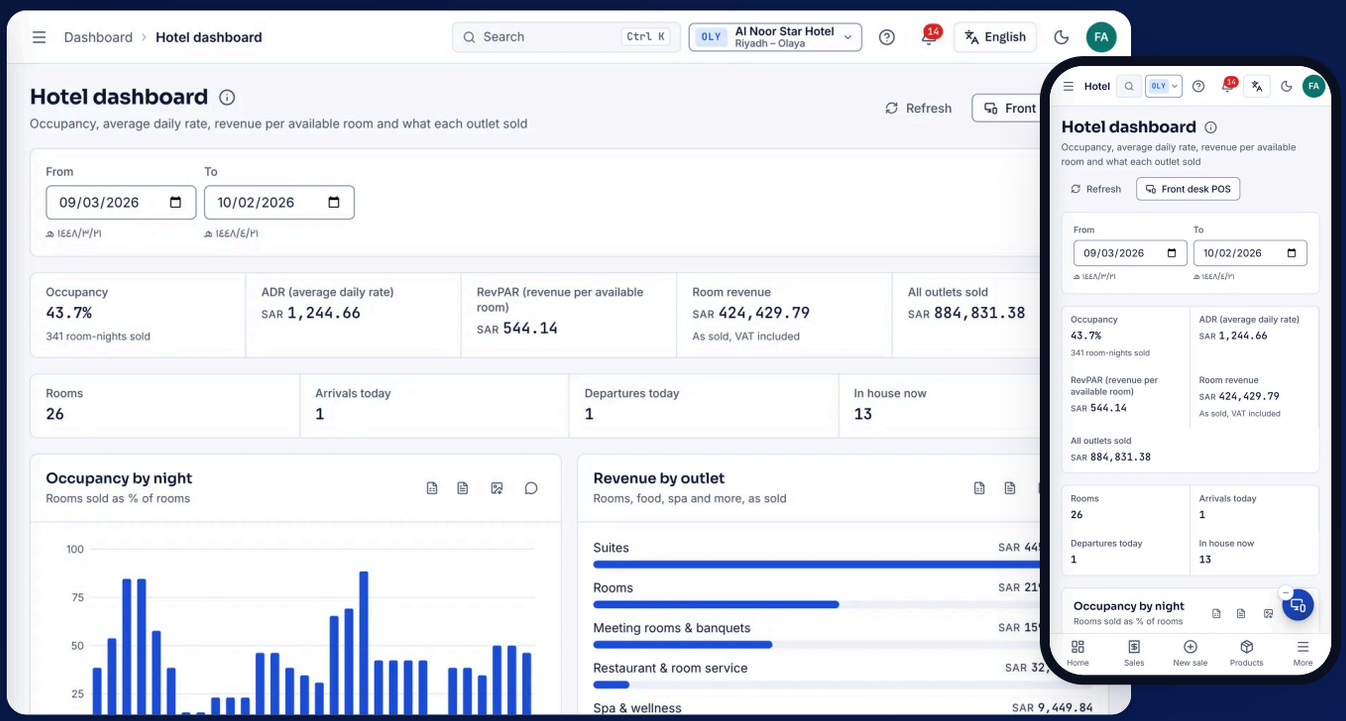

- 3, 4 and 5 star hotels
- Luxury and 7 star hotels
- Business and airport hotels
- Hotel apartments

Questions owners ask

Does it show occupancy, ADR and RevPAR?
Yes. The hotel dashboard and the room rack work them out from the stays sold: occupancy is room nights sold over rooms available, ADR is room revenue per night sold and RevPAR is room revenue per room available.

Can the restaurant charge to the guest's room?
Yes. Type the room number on the restaurant, room service, minibar, laundry or spa bill and it joins the guest's folio, to be paid at check-out.
